Dear Sirs,

Thank you for permitting me to submit comments on the case of United States v. Microsoft Corporation. Since I'm sure you don't want to hear arguments about the case (those are for the courtroom) or proof that I know what I'm talking about (that would be tough to provide), I will be brief. You may count me among the Microsoft haters, and I am very pleased that the "remedy" of donating computers to schools was struck down. I like the idea of breaking the company into an applications and an operating system division.

Thanks for listening,
Greg
